Negro Newark Council Candidates Hail Endorsement By Senator Hutchings Inge

Pres. Extols Soldier Who Died-Presents Medal Of Honor

WASHINGTON — President Johnson standing in the White House rose garden in a simple setting of warmth and spiritual atmosphere here last Thursday awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor—posthumously—to Pfc. Milton L. Olive III, who died in the jungle near Phu Cuong, South Viet Nam, on Oct. 22, 1965, while pursuing the Viet Cong with his fellow paratroopers.

Pfc. Olive of Chicago was the third soldier and the first Negro to win the Medal of Honor in the Vietnamese war, and the Re-election in coming May 10 Newark Municipal election, Calvin D. West, also a Candidate for Councilman-at-Large; Norma Jean Littles, Norma Littles, and Gladys Grady. Standing next is a patron who is unknown.

Unity In Negro Leadership Seen In Endorsements

NEWARK — Senator (Dr.) Hutchings Inge of Essex County whose endorsement of Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio of this city running for reelection drew the attention of several Negro Newark Council Candidates as well as Negro political leaders, said they were highly pleased when Senator Inge announced Sunday here that he was happy to endorse for election in May 10 Newark Municipal election, Calvin D. West and Thomas Coxson both candidates for Councilman-at-Large, also Councilman Irvine I. Turner, candidate for reelection, Central Ward and

CALVIN D. WEST

William D. Payne, candidate for South Ward Councilman.

Dr. Inge described the four Negroes running for election to Newark Council as outstanding men of their respective communities. He said that he saw in their efforts to win election to municipal office the beginning of a new day in Negro political relations in the city of Newark. He continued, "the day is near at hand when instead of a few endorsements such as my own, every Negro leader will come out and be counted."

Senator Inge has confined his medical practice for the most part to the Central Ward as well as making his home here and is considered one of Essex County's best known professional men.

It was reported earlier this week that recent endorsements by Negro Political leaders displayed a healthy sign of Negro non-partisan unity. This public expression of unity on the part of outstanding Negro political leaders which included, Freeholder, Director Charles A. Matthews of the Essex County Board of Freeholders and Bulle Ward Deputy Director of Deeds and Mortgages of Essex County and chairman of the powerful Central Ward of Newark Democratic County Committee last

Turner Asks For More Low Cost Housing In Ward

NEWARK — Councilman Irvine Turner called for intensive new low-rise, low cost housing in the Central Ward. He said the housing should extend from Clinton Avenue to Central Avenue.

"Overcrowded, run - down neighborhoods are good places for trouble to breed," Turner said.

"People come to my office every day looking for a decent place to live at a price they can afford to pay. These are working people and they are part of the city. They want to live like everybody else with respect and dignity in a decent neighborhood.

"Most of the people who come to my office tell me that even though they are working, they

Dr. Henderson Heads White House Conference Task Force On Rights

WASHINGTON — Dr. Vivian W. Henderson, nationally prominent economist and President of Clark College, Atlanta, Georgia, has been named Director of a special task force on "Economic Security and Welfare" in preparation for the White House Conference on Civil Rights.

The Conference, which will be held June 1-2, is being convened by President Lyndon B. Johnson to find new means and methods "to move the American Negro from opportunity to achievement."

A 29-member Council appointed by President Johnson to plan for the Conference has agreed to concentrate major work sessions during the Conference on three problem areas — Jobs, Economic Security, and Welfare; Education; and Housing.

Working under the direction of the Council, the Economic Security task force is responsible for sifting through recommendations on employment from last November's Planning Session and developing a comprehensive, "action - oriented" program, which will be submitted to the Conference for discussion and action.

Prior to becoming President of Clark College, Dr. Henderson was Chairman of the Department of Economics and Business Administration at Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee, for 13 years. He has authored numerous publications on the economic status of the Negro.

Dr. Henderson also served as Director of the task force on Jobs, Job Training and Economic Security for the Planning Session of the White House Conference.

RALEIGH, N.C. — Dr. James E. Cheek was inaugurated seventh president of 100-year old Shaw University here Saturday, April 16th in a ceremony filled with dignity and pageantry at Memorial Auditorium and called for renewed educational opportunity for all.

Dr. Cheek, a 33-year old educator and a native of Roanoke Rapids, N.C., officially accepted the presidential reins of the institution on the observance of Shaw's 100th anniversary. The college was founded in 1866 by the late Dr. Henry Martin Taylor.

Payne Popular Candidate Woos Voters

NEWARK — William D. Payne, candidate for fourth ward councilman, said he is seeking the office of councilman to represent all of the residents of the ward and is appealing to all citizens for their support.

Payne said, "I have always supported and voted for office-seekers based on their qualifications, not their race. In fact, four years ago I even voted for the candidate who falsely accused me of urging Negroes to vote only for Negroes."

Payne said, "All of my years of community and civic service have been of an integrated nature. The south ward is one of the finest integrated communities in the county and we intend to work for all residents instead of pitting ethnic group against ethnic group."

Payne also noted that the incumbent councilman Bernstein was a different type of politician, one who was not interested in the welfare of the community but in his own pocket.

Know Your Neighbor

By DR. WILLIAM SMITH

Two parks in Newark were dedicated last Sunday, both at 2 p.m.

A small, triangular shaped park, East of Penn Station and bounded by Ferry Street, Edison Place and N.J. Railroad Avenue, was named Peter Francisco Park, a Portuguese-born hero who fought the British in the Revolutionary War.

In the Clinton Hill section, at the same hour, the city dedicated the $432,000 Samuel Cooper Memorial Park, a Memorial for Samuel Cooper, a councilman and judge from the South Ward, who died in 1957.

Peter Francisco, whose memory will be honored in the park bearing his name, fought valiantly in many battles against the British. Among the scheduled speakers for the occasion were: Vasco Viera, Portuguese vice consul, Rept. Peter Radino, D-10th, and Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio.

Cooper Memorial Park, a terraced tract, bounded by Clinton and Seymour Avenues, and Hedden Terrace and West Runyon Street, is located in the Clinton Hill Section. Among those programmed for this affair were: Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio and other community leaders. Corporation Counsel Norman N. Schiff delivered a eulogy for Mr. Cooper.

The guests were introduced by Rev. Kim Jefferson, Executive Secretary of the Greater Newark Council of Churches.

Old Morton Street Boys Club Reunion Dinner, May 13th

NEWARK—Mr. Andrew Semansco will address the Alumni of the former Morton Street Unit of Boys' Clubs of Newark at a 7 p.m. dinner to be held on Friday, May 13th at the Sterling House. Mr. Semansco has experienced 44 years with the Boston, Passaic, Newark, Mt. Vernon and Troy Boys' Clubs. Currently he is the Executive Director of the Troy, New York Boys' Club and serves as chairman of the Nominating Committee for the National Boys' Clubs Professional Association.

In the late 1940's Mr. Semansco was Executive Director of Boys' Clubs of Newark. This Alumni Dinner will be a reunion of former members from the beginning of Boys' Clubs in Newark in 1939. Former volunteer staff and Board Members are expected to attend. Also, the origin of the Newark Clubs is the result of community interest and concern for Newark's youth by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Boys Club is a non-profit, non-sectarian organization dedicated to building the character of young citizens through the guidance and the facilities for recreation, vocational, educational and social activities.

Mr. Theodore Edwards, a Federal Probation Officer and former member will serve as Master of Ceremonies. Entertainment will be provided by boy members.

The Mothers' Club of the old Morton Street Unit will be hostess for this affair. The president Mrs. Eileen Jackson states that this affair is the first attempt to formally reclaim the interest of boys and staff who shared experiences in boy programs. Persons from Connecticut to Washington, D. C. and from North Carolina to New York State are expected to attend.

The Morton Street Unit was razed in 1960 to make way for a redevelopment of the Central Ward Area. Since then they have been operating under the limited facilities of the Community Hall Building in the Stella Wright Housing Project at 159 Spruce Street. In 1967 a campaign will be launched to obtain needed supplemental funds to build and equip a new building to be located somewhere in the Central Newark area.

Mr. Carl R. Andrews is the Director of this unit and serves as coordinator for the May 13th dinner.

5,000 To Attend Churches Of God Youth Congress

DETROIT — Over 5,000 delegates and visitors are expected to attend the annual Churches of God in Christ International Youth Congress, to be held here, June 30 through July 4.

Bishop Louis Henry Ford, of Chicago, COGIC International Public Relations Director, said headquarters for the gigantic youth meeting will be State Temple (3500 Elmwood). State Temple houses the State Conventions of two divisions of the COGIC in Michigan, which are headed by Bishops J. S. Bailey and C. J. Johnson.

Bishop Ford, said the 1966 INTERNATIONAL YOUTH CONGRESS is being supervised by a Provisional Board.

The Board chairman, Elder Chandler Owen, of Newark, N.J., said proceeds from the Youth Congress here would be used to help complete the purchase of machinery for the COGIC publishing house in Memphis.

Other members of the Provisional Board include Elders: James T. Watson, Chicago; Willie James, Toledo, Ohio; B. T. Rimsom, Detroit; Gilbert Patterson, Memphis; Charles Blake, San Diego; Bolden Jones, Sedalia, Mo.; Roger Jones, Flint, Mich.; Roy L. Wimbush, Baton Rouge, La.; Ithel Clemmons, Hollis, Long Island, N. Y.; Earl J. Wright, Detroit; Neval Haynes, Dallas, Texas; and Bishop R. S. Fields, Youngstown, Ohio.

Also, Elders: E. T. Clark, Detroit; H. J. Williams, Detroit; William Peterson, Stockton, Calif.; Samuel Smith, Memphis; C. H. Brewer, Jr., New Haven, Conn.; L. V. Stitt, Topeka, Kans.; Jacob Cohen, Miami, Fla.; J. A. Jones, Jackson, Miss.; L. B. Davenport, Plymouth, N. C. and W. Haines, Kountze, Texas.

Bishop A. B. McEwan, chairman of the Executive Board, expressed great confidence in the future of the Youth Congress, under leadership of the Provisional Board which, he said, includes "some of the finest men in the church." Members of the Provisional Board range in age from their 20s to the 60s, Bishop McEwan pointed out. He said they represented a "real cross-section" of church leadership.

Bishop J. O. Patterson, of Memphis, General Secretary of the Church, has been selected by Bishop McEwan and other Executive Board members to serve as general Counsel on official literature to be published by the Church.

Bishop Ford said a highlight of the Youth Congress meeting would be a Special Gospel Tour along the coast of Canada aboard a 2,000-passenger steamship, climaxing with a religious service on Belle Island.

Another feature of the youth convocation, Bishop Ford pointed out, will be a city-wide, door-to-door campaign of "ministry and witnessing."

Final plans for the youth meeting will be formulated at a special meeting of the Provisional Board, scheduled for Wednesday, April 27, at Bailey's Temple, located at McKinley and Edsel Ford Expressway, in Detroit.

Mrs. J. V. Hearne, of Oklahoma City, International Chairlady, will be in charge of the Ladies Auxiliary Field Workers of the Youth Department.

Requests for special reservations and information about the Youth Congress should be directed to Bishop J. S. Bailey, 1961 W. Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Mich.

Comedian Plays First Major Screen Role

NEW YORK — Comedian Godfrey Cambridge has been signed for his first major screen role in "The Biggest Bundle of Them All," a Shaftel-Stewart Production for release by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. He joins Raquel Welch and a stellar cast being assembled for the production which begins shooting in Naples this Tuesday April 26th.

One of the most versatile performers to emerge on the comedy scene during the last five years, Cambridge has scored major successes on television and in the country's top nightclubs. In addition to recording several best-selling albums, Cambridge interpretation of the leading role in "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" was one of the high-points of last year's summer stock season. His only previous motion picture appearance was in "The Troublemaker."

Produced by Josef Shaftel and directed by Ken Annakin, "The Biggest Bundle of Them All" is a comedy about a group of inept American and European amateurs who attempt to steal $5,000,000 worth of platinum. The multi-star production will be filmed in Panavision and Color on location in Italy and southern France.

Samuel Sachs States Campaign Platform

NEWARK — Samuel Sachs, candidate for Councilman-at-Large in the coming May 10, Newark Municipal election outlines his platform. It is by points as follows:

1. An expanded recreational program in the interests of Newark's youngsters. An active mind and healthy body are the strongest deterrents in the battle against juvenile delinquency.

2. Improve and enlarge the facilities of the Rotunda Swimming Pool to accommodate the added increase in population, also construct a pool in the South Ward which at the present time does not enjoy this accommodation.

3. A broad base program should be undertaken with the idea of impressing industrial firms on the advantages offered in the meadowlands project and its ready access to transportation avenues such as rail, air, highways and waterways. Any success here would bring added revenue to the city thus bringing relief to taxpayers.

4. Make an extensive study into the traffic problem that has been a constant bane to motorists in Newark, especially during the peak hours. A special department to delve into and explore the many possibilities to eliminate these traffic snags should be set up immediately.

5. The city and industry should unite in a joint effort to explore the manpower prospects of those persons on the welfare roster with an eye towards placing them in some gainful employment. Any success obtained here would cut sharply into the rising costs of maintaining the relief program.

6. Broaden the program to improve and beautify the city of Newark. Newark is a city on the move and in this respect should put its best foot forward. This is particularly so where it concerns visitors to our fair city who are usually impressed with what they see.

7. Raise the salaries of our police personnel to a level where it will not be necessary for any officer to fall back on "moonlighting" in order to supplement the regular weekly stipend. This would tend to boost the morale of the police department and contribute to make for better law enforcement.

8. To consider seriously a plan to integrate into our present school system a vocational training program in the interests of pupils who demonstrate a talent for this particular learning. This would in itself encourage those who would ordinarily become dropouts because of scholastic difficulties to find some avenue of vocational training to their liking.

The retail value of the cigars smoked in 1963 was 660 million dollars.

JOB 32:8

Dear Doc' Wilson —

My luck is very bad. I wrecked my car. My house caught fire. My husband went away with another woman. I was mugged, robbed and almost raped four days ago. What more can happen to me?

ANSWER:

You can lose you life, dearie. Why noe spend a few minutes on your knee's thanking the Old Man.

The path of the just is as the shining light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

PROVERBS 4:18

Dear Doc' Wilson —

This is Jean. I am the white girl who followed you from Valdosta Ga. to Jacksonville Fla. for the long talk. My father passed and I got all of the money you said I would get plus lots of property that I don't want, that others must need or they wouldn't wear me out on the phone from morning 'til night. I told everybody that I would be back with my decisions on May 1st. — I intend to stay with you or near you until I return here. I have mailed every legal paper I could find to your New York place. My husband tried to beg back but he doesn't stand a chance. I am supposed to be a well-built beautiful woman, yet everyone has taken parts of me, but no one has given me anything but more trouble. Did I tell you that my uncle tried to rape me. Well, don't worry about that, he's not the only blood relative who has tried an failed. My faith is in you, that's why I have sent you all of my money and will sign over all of my real estate holding to you. I have learned that the color white and black means nothing. Decency lies in the red blood that runs through your veins. My letter is long so I'll talk you to death when I get there. You can come back and straighten out everything. I never wish to see this town again unless its absolutely necessary.

ANSWER:

The town you're talking about is 20 miles or more out of Valdosta. I had to get out of the place in a hurry 20 years ago and it hasn't changed that much in all this time. I'll go there with some Marines. Other than that, we'll do our business through an agency. Hotel accommodations have been arranged for you, your sister, and your Aunt.

"STRETCH CHECKS"

Stretch socks are quite popular. Stretch Bra's and Girdles are at the peak of popularity. All of a sudden Stretch Checks wants to be heard from. Some of these floaters contain more rubber than a balloon. I have received more than my share. retty soon I'll have a deck of cards. All of them return from the bank I. F. meaning, insufficient funds. Which means that the check should never have been written if there's no money in there to cover it. Eeverone who has sent me a balloon has been notified. If they ignore this notice, I will PRINT names, addresses, cities and amount. At least this will keep other people from getting stuck. — A lady sent a money order to cover her subscription, then before mailing it, discovered it was 50 cents short, so she wrote a personal check and sent it along. What do you think bounced. — "The Fifty Cents Check". A man from Key West Florida sent part cash and $1.50 personal check to cover his 6 months subscription cost. The check bounced. I notified him by letter. Three nights later he called and spent about $8.00 with the telephone company apologizing. He said; Doc', put the check thru again there must be a mistake. I said, no my friend. I am out of $1.50 plus 50 cents bank charges for the last one. Send me a Money Order. Three or four days later his personal check for $2.00 arrives. I said to myself, he evidently went to the bank, got himself straightened out and wants o impress me. Wanting to give hi ma chance I deposited it along with other checks. Four days later we discovered that this one was more rubberized than the last one.

DON'T SEND ME OR THE PAPER ANYMORE BLIMPS. If you wish to see your name printed on a personal check. Please keep it, frame it, and place it on your bedroom wall.

Electricity is today's biggest household bargain

Although your electric bills may be higher now than they were back in 1940, consider all the appliances you've added — appliances which spell the difference between old fashioned drudgery and modern living. In fact, the average home uses more than four times the amount of electricity today than in 1940. But the combination of rate reductions and increased use of electricity has resulted in a 44% decrease in the average unit cost of electricity since then. Yes, by bucking the trend of soaring prices, we've been able to maintain electricity's position as your biggest — and best — household bargain.

Young Critical Of American Education-Urges Change Now

MINNEAPOLIS — In an address last week before the General Session of the National School Board Association, Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director, National Urban League, challenged school board members throughout the country to recognize that "of all the means of social improvement subject to public control, the most powerful instrument for social change is the school."

"It is to the everlasting credit of the educational system that we have a civil rights revolution at all," Mr. Young said, "but it is to the everlasting shame of the school system that there needs to be a civil rights revolution. Clearly, in a critical dimension, education has failed us. American schools today are stratified in quality, divided in their objectives and contribute to producing a class-stratified and race-stratified society."

"As a direct result of our failure to educate many of our Negro children, there is no city in the United States in which a severe economic depression does not exist in the Negro community. The National employment rate has dropped to 3.5 percent, but in Watts it is 13 percent and in Negro communities at points throughout the country, the unemployment rate runs as high as 20 percent. Investment in human capital is more important to the nation than investment in mechanical and technological equipment."

"Either we are going to make the people in the ghettos constructive citizens, productive and healthy, or they are going to be destructive dependents and an ever increasing threat to the whole fabric of our national society. In the latter case, we are going to be forced to spend increasing millions year after year for such people in order to allow them to live in penury, one step removed from starvation, while we pay the cost of our shortsightedness — our simple, unpardonable neglect — in outlays to combat crime, fire, disease, and to cover the mounting cost of welfare payments. We will see a continual erosion of the tax base of our cities, where the uneducated Negro is concentrated, and a collapse of our cities at the core."

"Until the Negro population is brought to full parity with the white population, the Negro citizen will continue to depress the composite level of American society and society will continue to compound all the injustices of the past."

"In evaluating local schools, it is not enough that you strive for integration of your student bodies as an essential adjunct to quality education. Your faculties and your school boards must be integrated as well. Children also learn by precept. If they don't see you practice conclude that you believe what you practice, and they will be right."

"Poverty is a closed circuit, weeding endlessly upon itself. The poor beget the poor and poor education begets the poorly educated. The only way to break the closed circuit is through education. The schools are the key."

Notation of the 1967-'68 FELLOWSHIPS listed in AAUW's most recent Journal are noteworthy of listing; and they are unrestricted to age or place of research: one award of $5,000; one award of $4,500; 6 awards of $4,000; 12 awards of $3,500; and 30 awards of $3,000—all to American women... WONDERFUL... And these awards are open to women who hold the doctorate or its equivalent in scholarly achievement or who fulfill all requirements for the doctorate except the dissertation by June 1st preceding the Fellowship year.

Then too, there are THREE AAUW FELLOWSHIPS IN THE NATURAL SCIENCES FOR 1967-'68: MARIE CURIE FELLOWSHIP in Radiology, Physics, or Chemistry; Doctorate in field of research required. Open to women of France or the USA. Stipend—$5,000. SARAH BERLINER FELLOWSHIP in Physics, Chemistry, or Biology; Doctorate in field of research required. Open to women of any country. To women of other countries than the United States for Graduate Study or Research in the USA there are INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS which are offered with the purpose of providing advanced training for women of outstanding ability who may be expected to give constructive leadership in their countries upon return. The qualifications are fluency in English so that a full program of academic work can be taken up immediately upon arrival in the U. S. 2-academic preparation equivalent to an American Bachelor's degree which will insure admission to a first-rate graduate school in the U. S. 3-a plan of study or research which will advance professional competence in some field as teaching, medicine, public health, social work, etc. which has social significance in the advancement of the welfare of the people; 4-no restriction as to age or field of study except that awards are not made in the creative performing arts; 5-intention of applicant to return to her own country. Stipends—$2500 for living and incidental expenses. Any required tuition costs will be paid directly to the university by AAUW. No travel costs will be paid by AAUW... MY, WHAT A FINE WAY TO STUDY.

N.J. STATE TAX CAUSE FOR CONCERN

The Democratic Legislator has called to attention the great debates for sales tax. Realism dictates that acceptance be made of the demise of the income tax and that the sales tax become the only reasonable alternative as a source of revenue to move forward with a program for New Jersey's future is the chief argument. Jerseyans and others of scope were present for the Central Opera Service at its Eighth National Conference with Opera: Quo Vadis as its theme, sponsored by the Metropolitan Opera National Council. Mr. Robert Lynn Batts Tobin held an elaborate reception for Central Opera members attending the conference from all over the United States. A last look at the Metropolitan Opera House on 39th Street explained by Mrs. John DeWitt Pelz, Metropolitan Opera Archivist with focus on the New Metropolitan Opera by Herman Krawitz, Assistant Manager, Metropolitan Opera were among the high points with speeches sparked by Prof. Eric F. Goldman, Special Consultant to President Johnson; a former Professor of History at Princeton. Edith and Ruth Baker were among members of color noted at this brilliant gathering of opera experts at the three-day sessions. Camden's Mallory Jane Lewis, of Michie Elementary School is still receiving congratulations on her receipt of a special $1000 Pepsi-Cola Company scholarship presented by H. Naylor Fitzhugh, Vice President of Pepsi-Cola. One of seven children residing in the Ferry Avenue home where her father is a city policeman, she plans to enter school at Northeastern University, Boston, Mass.

Jerseyans are lamenting the fact that the Urban League of Essex County has dismissed eight of its eighteen staff members for lack of funds. James A. Pawley, executive director, decried the lack of funds and support given the League.

A new agreement covering wages and fringe benefits between three supermarket chains involving some 10,000 employees has been reached in Newark by the union.

Harvard, Syracuse Accept Two Negro (Step) Students

NEW YORK—The first two Negro boys from the South to enroll in a Nassau County high school for a two-year program under the Student Transfer Education Plan (STEP) were notified this week of admission to Northern colleges in September with full scholarship aid. Both are now students at The Wheatley School, Old Westbury, L. I., and will graduate in June.

Harold Whack, who comes from Charleston, S. C., has been accepted by both Harvard College and Syracuse University. He has yet to decide which he will attend. Henry Roy Smith, who comes from Awenden, S. C., will attend Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.

In addition to full tuition scholarships, both boys have been offered part-time jobs to insure extra living expenses. Whack expects to study government and international relations; Smith hopes to study electrical engineering.

"The future well-being of America depends upon just such development of its total human resources as this," Whitney M. Young, Jr., executive director, National Urban League, said. "We congratulate the boys on their achievement and all those in Nassau County who have contributed to their success."

STEP is a program designed to permit Southern Negro children to complete their high school work in selected Northern communities in the hope that, with academic opportunities superior to those available to them in the segregated Southern schools from which they came, they will be able to compete successfully for admission to integrated Northern colleges and professional schools.

For the past two years, the boys have lived with host families in Nassau County while they attended Wheatley.

Whack, who lives with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sugarman, Roslyn Heights, is co-captain of the Wheatley track team. Smith, who lives with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jerome, East Williston, plays the saxophone in the school band and is on the staff of the school newspaper, The Wheatley Wildcat.

Both boys feel that the quality of teachers and facilities, the challenge of new ideas, and the incentives to higher education at Wheatley are far superior to what they had experienced in segregated schools in Charleston and Awenden, S. C.

"The science facilities are great at Wheatley," Whack said. "They were nothing in Charleston."

North Shore STEP was organized in 1964, as an autonomous group drawing its membership from a number of Nassau County communities under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leonard Selalet, Roslyn Heights. It now functions in cooperation with the National Urban League, which is in process of establishing an umbrella operation to serve a range of such local groups working toward the same end. Plans call for an expansion of the program to include placement of 300 Southern children in a wide range of communities from New York to Ohio in the next four years.

Host families, who provide room and board, are screened as carefully as the transfer students. Sponsoring committees in each participating community assume responsibility for introducing the student into the community, facilitating his adjustment, and dealing with any problems that may arise. The student's family is asked to contribute what it can to the student's support.

Nassau County families interested in serving as hosts to Southern Negro High school students should telephone or write: Mrs. Bertram H. Rosenbloom, Executive Secretary, North Shore STEP, 43 Parkway Drive, Roslyn Heights, Long Island.

A Layman's Guide To Negro History

CHICAGO — The first comprehensive guidebook to Negro history materials ranging from reference books and film strips to phonograph records and films has been compiled in a new book, "A Layman's Guide To Negro History," by Erwin A. Salk, a Chicago mortgage banker whose sparetime hobby is Negro history.

The volume, which will be published by Quadrangle Books on May 20, lists not only the fullest bibliography ever compiled on Negro history volumes and teaching aids but also has an encyclopedic year-by-year listing of the most important dates in the history of the U. S. Negroes. A compilation of all of the top names in the Negro's past in the U. S. is also a feature of "A Layman's Guide To Negro History."

Among other sections in this easy-to-use complete volume intended as "a documented, detailed guide to the Negro past" are a suggested basic library of Negro history, a selected list of readings for children and young adults, a compilation of paperback titles as well as pamphlets, lists of teaching materials and guides plus other basic reference-type materials such as lists of Negroes in Congress, Negro inventors, organizations and periodicals.

An excellent reference book not only for teachers and librarians but also "every American interested in every 10th American," the new work was hailed in advance of publication by noted civil rights leaders and Nobel Prize winner Martin Luther King Jr. as "an outstanding compilation of these volumes which document our history."

Negro Director To Assist In Picture 'Gambit'

Universal, City, Calif. Wendell Franklin, Hollywood's first Negro assistant director, has been set to assist director Ronald Neame on Universal's "Gambit," starring Shirley MacLaine and Michael Caine. In addition, Franklin, whose talents are much in demand, has already been set to work on Universal's upcoming Technicolor film, "Munster, Go Home," starring Fred Gwynne, Yvonne De Carlo and Al Lewis of Universal TV's "The Munsters."

Franklin's unprecedented entry into motion picture work, a feat comparable to that of Jackie Robinson's break-through in the baseball world, is the result of acknowledged ability, as reflected by the calibre of stars he has worked with: Sandra Dee, James Garner, Charlton Heston, James Stewart, Rock Hudson, and many others.

One of the most respected men in his field, Franklin got his first Hollywood break while working as head parking attendant on the National Broadcasting Company lot and came to the attention of TV executives. His talent was soon recognized and he became an integral part of such shows as "Queen For a Day," "This is Your Life" and "Truth or Consequences."

Involvement Of Poor Program Is Set For Change

WASHINGTON — The office of Economic Opportunity announced here last week that orders were being issued to increase the involvement of the poor in the poverty program.

First, it changed and stiffened rules on citywide elections of the poor and suggested alternatives. Second, it directed that poor people serving on policymaking and advisory boards in local poverty projects be reimbursed for their expenses.

The office of Economic Opportunity, which runs the Federal antipoverty drive, said the rulings would affect many among the 28,000 poor persons serving on poverty boards now and thousands of others who would become involved, either through elections or other means.

The agency discovered to its chagrin that there was no correlation between the amount of money it spent in city slums on elections of the poor and the turnout of potential voters.

James J. Kelleher, a spokesman for the agency, said today: "We want to support the most efficient way of getting the biggest participation in the selection of representatives. Elections have not proven to be the most effective way by any means."

Mr. Kelleher added that the agency would fund no more elections until the city proved that it could not get poor people involved in any other way.

Mr. Kelleher said the prevailing opinion was that there had been a "communication failure" in citywide elections. Now being tried in Denver is a neighborhood election system in which there is heavy use of poor people already employed by the program to inform and get out voters by door-to-door canvassing.

Our Hugh J. Addonizio is A MAN TO BE PROUD OF

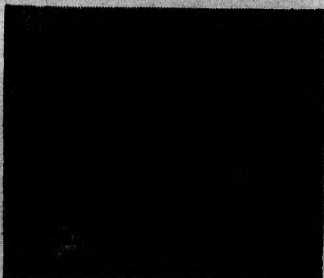

Hugh Addonizio played football at Newark's West Side High School, and at St. Benedict's Prep School where he was All-State scholastic quarterback. He also attended Fordham University on a scholarship and graduated with a degree in business administration.

Hugh Addonizio answered his country's call early during World War II and served for 6 years as an infantryman, rising from private to captain. Participating in eight major campaigns in Africa and Europe, Captain Addonizio was awarded the Bronze Star and placed in the Infantry School Hall of Fame.

Hugh Addonizio was elected to Congress seven times and spent 14 years as an effective champion of human rights and a tireless fighter on behalf of the people of his District. His career of distinguished Congressional service has won sincere praise from leaders and laymen in Washington and at home.

When the people of Newark address Hugh Addonizio as Mr. Mayor, it is an expression of their genuine respect and admiration.

This closeness, this open-door communication with the people, is one of the achievements Mayor Addonizio is proudest of. He did it by seeing 30,000 persons face-to-face since he took office.

Hugh Addonizio is a Newarker through and through. He was born and raised here . . . and studied here before going on to college. He went off to war from here and saw action in eight major World War II campaigns. He married a Newark girl, and started his family here. He was elected a Congressman seven times from here. And he returned here to serve as our Mayor.

Hugh Addonizio is for Newark and its people, heart and soul . . . as he has consistently proved during his distinguished 18-year career both in Congress and as Mayor of our city.

Yes, Mayor Addonizio has well earned the respect, confidence and loyalty of the people of Newark . . . on his clear-cut record of accomplishment as a dedicated public servant . . . and personally as an intelligent, calm-in-a-crisis, sincere man of integrity—a man for all the people.

For the continued good of Newark—for your own good—support Mayor Addonizio and his programs for people on May 10th.

THESE FAMOUS AMERICANS HAVE SHOWN THEIR PRIDE IN HUGH J. ADDONIZIO, TOO

"Your record shows you have fought constantly . . . to serve all of the people rather than special interests."

President
John F. Kennedy

"Under the leadership of Mayor Addonizio, Newark has provided the incentive and has shown the way to all other municipalities the effectiveness of our nation's war on poverty program. Newark can be proud of this leadership."

President Lyndon B. Johnson

"The pages of history record for posterity his countless good deeds in dedicated service to his constituents and his country. The people of Newark look upon him not only as their Mayor but as their champion and friend."

Rep. Peter W. Rodino

"Hugh J. Addonizio . . . has always been in the forefront of the fight for liberal legislation."

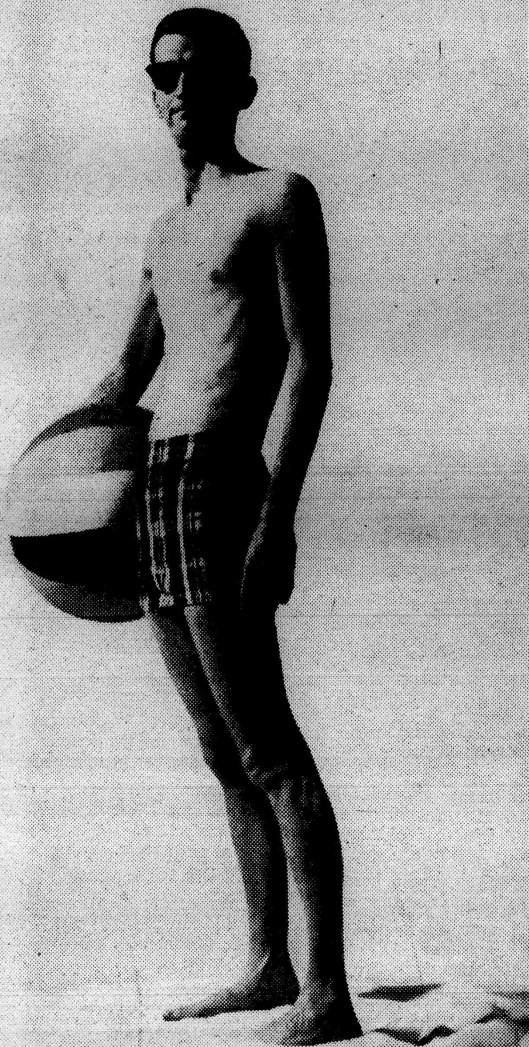

Ray Wilkins, Exec. Secretary, NAACP
